TIGHTS OR TRUNKS

THAT IS WHAT THE OAKLAND CITY COUNCIL

Will Decide Next Sunday for the Benefit of the Columbia Rowing Club.

Tights or Trunks.

There was an exchange of views last night before the Judiciary Committee of the City Council, by advocates and opponents of the proposed ordinance to regulate the cut and length of bathing suits.

Professor Frank Soule of the State University and Commodore W. W. Blow of the Canoe Club fathered the ordinance. They accused the young men of the Columbia Rowing Club of clothing themselves in abbreviated trunks.

George Wheaton Jr. produced a set of bathing trunks and said the Columbia members never appeared nude in polite society, or when bathing in Sessions basin. They did not feel called upon to wear tights, he said, and believed the ordinance was the result of spite work.

E. E. Buckleton of the Columbia Club said some people wanted the boys to purchase expensive shirts and tights before they could go in swimming. In Eastern bathing resorts people did not expect to be shocked at the sight of bathers in trunks, and he could not see why Oaklanders should be so squeamish.

Commodore Blow suggested that Mr. Wheaton don his bathing trunks and show himself to the committee, but Mr. Wheaton declined.

"Your mothers, sisters and lady friends do not approve of your methods of dress at the clubhouse," cried Commodore Blow.

"Oh, yes they do," came in chorus from the assembled Columbians.

Professor Soule told some thrilling tales of Columbia young men in a boat, who rowed past a boat-load of ladies. The young men were naked as far down as the side of the boat permitted a view of them. Then the professor recalled instances of young men on the Columbia boathouse balcony with only a crash towel for protection from the weather. "I don't understand the spirit of these young Americans," added Professor Soule; "the spirit that induces them to construe liberty into license."

George Greenwood of the Columbians said it was prudery that objected in Oakland to the Columbia Rowing Club style of bathing suits.

list of fashionable wafering, CHICKEN, the Eastern States where, 1895, naked to the waist, were viewed with alarm by thousands of admiring eyes when boating and racing.

Mr. Purves of East Oakland accused the Columbia Club members of basking on their balcony to the discomfort of a party of ladies who were guests of the Crescent Club, whose house is near by.

Finally the young men from the Columbia Club invited the Councilmen to visit them at the clubhouse next Sunday, and they would appear on dress parade and, just as usual, in trunks. The Councilmen accepted the invitation, and will thus be eye-witnesses of the sights that Professor Soule and Commodore Blow desire prohibited.

Will it be called another gold bond issue when young Marlborough receives $3,000,000 of good American coin?—Alameda Telegram.

No.—A bone fide saie,

John L. Donovan of San Leandro has been appointed game warden for Alameda county.

Violated the Ordinance

A large number of bi-riders of both sexes were arrested in Oakland last evening, for violating the following ordinance:

"Every person riding a bicycle, tri-cycle or velocipede in the night time in any public street within the limits of the city of Oakland must have a lamp and bell or horn attached thereto, and must keep the said lamp lighted, and must ring the said bell or sound the said horn loudly and continuously immediately before reaching and while traversing every public street crossing."

The punishment for violating the same is by a fine of not less than $10, nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for one day for each $2.

Berkeley bi-riders should make a note of this, and procure a horn or drum when they wish to ride in Oakland in the night time.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

PROFESSOR BOKE GOES ON THE WARPATH.

Other Interesting Local News From East, West, North, and South Berkeley.

The Old Family Name.

James Holm Jacobs and Dortha Leith Jacobs of Berkeley have applied to the Superior Court for permission to change the family name from Jacobs to Jacobson. Mr. Jacobs is a native of Denmark and Jacobson is the family name, the proper English spelling of which is Jacobson. The petitioners state that they are American citizens and desire to adopt the old family name Anglicised, and for the reason that a brother of the first named petitioner has adopted the name of Jacobson. The petition will be heard next Monday by Judge Ogden.

Professor Boke's Wrath.

George H. Boke, late instructor in English at the Oakland High School, has a grievance against the Board of Education which he has set forth in an extended communication. Boke resigned his position to accept the principalship of the San Rafael High School. Some of the members of the Board raised the question that Boke had retired after receiving eight weeks' pay for six weeks' work. He was appointed to the place in the Oakland High School at the commencement of the present school term. Boke does not relish the criticisms. He says: "As it is not usual for a man to be accused of defrauding a person or firm of a just debt until at least a formal demand for the payment has been made and the payment refused. I consider myself justified in asking the Board of Education why my name is given to the public with the aspersions of dishonorable conduct upon it until I have been notified of my indebtedness to the city of Oakland and have refused to settle the claim."

Professor Boke has requested the Board to forward its account against him. He says he made no claim for a September salary and did not receive an overplus of salary. "I received two payments," he explains, "equaling a trifle over seven weeks' salary for a time lacking two days of being seven weeks' service."

Crescent Athletic Club.

The Crescent Athletic Club will have a number of bicycle races in the Oakland Trotting Park next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The entries are as follows:

Half mile, scratch—F. B. Wilkins, H. P. Kroman, H. H. Price, Chas. W. Gompertz, J. F. Thomson and C. H. Putzker.

One mile handicap—H. Koster, H. H. Price, H. H. Hume, F. Foss, C. S. Paber, J. L. Wilkins, H. P. Kroman, C. W. Gompertz and E. P. Kirme, scratch; J. F. Thompson, 75 yards; H. Metcalf, 50; C. E. Putzker, 75; K. Putzker, 100; N. R. Stamper, 100.

Five-mile championship—E. P. Kirme, F. B. Wilkins, H. P. Kroman, J. F. Thomson, Fred Foss, Chas. Gompertz, H. Kastens and George Wilcox. Officers—Referee, L. A. Pokan, R. A. C.; starter, J. Cal. Ewing, R. A. C.; judges, J. B. Dusenbury, Leon B. Thomas, R. A. C.; times, C. F. Keams, C. A. C., and R. A. Curry, C. A. C.

That the position of President of the Board of Trustees is not one of glory but one of plenty of hard work, that takes up a great deal of that officer's time.

THE PASTOR OF THE EMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Being Made the Object of Suspicion by Durrant's Attorneys.

Special dispatches to the GAZETTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—There was nothing exciting in the Durrant case today. The morning session was entirely devoted to an explanation of the gas fixtures in the Emanuel Church and as to how much of an escape it would take to overcome Durrant. Also in reference to the arrangement of the electrical lights. E. W. Carpenter, a gas fitter of forty years' experience, testified that he had examined the fixtures between the two ceilings and he found the ventilation very poor. By his testimony the defense expect to show that Durrant was overcome by gas.

District Attorney Barnes made a long argument against admitting the roll call offered by the defense, as evidence, as he would show in rebuttal that tallied roll calls are not credited and that fifteen students will testify to their knowledge of it being a common custom at college to have students answer present for absentees. The careful attention that the defense is paying to the marks on the belfrey door further demonstrates that the Rev. George Gibson has been selected as the man against whom they will direct suspicion.

Dashed to Death.

Pittsburg, Sept. 27.—James D. Chambers, a well known citizen of this State, killed himself this morning by jumping from a four story window of the St. James hotel. No reason is ascribed for his suicide.

Death of an Old Citizen.

An Infected City.

St. Louis, Sept. 27.—Owing to the rapid increase of diphtheria during the past two days, Committeeman Scacklow has addressed circulars to all the physicians to report to him all cases coming under their observation. There are over 200 cases now known, and 95 of these were reported this week. Typhoid fever also exists to an alarming extent in the western and northern portions of the city.

State Officials Injured.

Kenniltown, W. V., Sept. 27.—Passenger train No. 1 of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad was sidwiped this morning by a passenger train lying on switch. The sleeper, which was crowded with sleepers, was totally demolished. United States Marshal Gardner of Wheeling, West Virginia and ex-Secretary of State Olney were on the sleeper and were terribly scalded by escaping steam, and will probably die. Several others were badly injured.

Case Dismissed.

At 10 o'clock this morning the case of the People vs. Everson was called in Judge Lord's Courtroom before Justice Lawrence of East Oakland.

The defendant was represented by Attorney McJunkin and the People by a deputy district attorney.

The case has attracted considerable attention and has caused some hard feelings among old neighbors.

It seems that Everson owed bills to Dr. Rowell, Dr. Paine, Frank Gimbel, Judge Penwell and an undertaker which he was unable to pay. These gentlemen, through their attorneys, placed attachments upon the property of Everson.

Finally the parties got together and told Everson that if he would deed the property to Judge Lord, that gentleman to sell the property to the best advantage, and pay off these judgments, and to finally pay any balance that might accrue to Everson.

Considerable time has elapsed since the deed was made out and the bills were not paid nor was the property sold.

On Monday last Everson sold the property to a man named Kelly, who at once placed the deed on record. When this was ascertained Frank Gimbel, who was one of the creditors, swore out a warrant for Everson and he was arrested.

Judge Lord was placed upon the stand, and he testified that he had agreed to pay Everson's bills in consideration of his giving him a deed to the property, and that when he sold the property he would pay all that he received over and above Everson's debts back to him.

Mr. Kelly was called, and testified that he had purchased the property from Everson, knowing that he had given a former deed, but as the conditions had not been complied with he agreed to pay all of his bills and take the property in lieu thereof, the further condition being that when he could sell the property the balance of the money would be paid to Everson.

Frank Gimbel stated that he had loaned Everson $40 and when he saw other people placing attachments upon the property he gave it to Officer Neilson to attach also. That finally an agreement was made between Everson, Judge Penwell, and Judge Lord that he should get his money just as soon as Judge Lord sold Everson's property, Everson having made a deed to Judge Lord for such purpose. He had tried to sell the property and had sold it but found out that Everson had sold the property again and he had him arrested because he thought he would lose his money.

The attorney for the defendant then asked that the case be dismissed as no intent to defraud had been shown.

Justice Lawrence said that there had not been any evidence of fraud proven and he dismissed the case and ordered the defendant discharged.

It is Said

That West Berkeley has an astonishingly large number of bad boys.

That Colonel Hanscom is still confined to his bed, and may not get out for several days.

That at sundown this evening the solemn feast of Gam Kippin will commence and will be faithfully observed by people of the Hebrew faith.

That there will be a large attendance at the Town Hall this evening.

That Trustee Durrell will endeavor to have the liquor license ordinance amended this evening, so that the license will be $300 per quarter.

That it would be well for some of the boys who go in bathing at West Berkeley to wear proper bathing suits, if they do not desire to be arrested.

That the attempt of Durrant's attorneys to throw suspicion upon the pastor, is liable to come back to him like a boomerang.

That the cow story in an evening contemporary was a brainy article, and that it was so humorous it would make a horse laugh.

That it is hoped that President Boone of the Board of Education will propose some plan next Monday evening whereby the question of grammar and High School bonds may both be voted for without any friction.

That the weather forecaster got next to himself today and the weather was cooler.

BONDS FOR GRAMMAR AND PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

There will be a special meeting of the Board of Education held on Monday evening next, at which the special committee appointed by the Board of Trustees will attend.

This meeting is called for the purpose of having the Board of Education decide upon what they want in relation to new school houses so that the public may know just how to vote in case an election is called for the purpose of issuing bonds for school purposes.

From straws we gather the idea that in the first place the Board of Education want a High School and secondly that they want a High School and one or two grammar schools.

It is possible that if they come to the conclusion that the High School proposition will not carry at an election they may accept of the grammar school proposition alone.

Should the Kellogg property be used for High School purposes alone there is no question at all but what it can be utilized all right for at least five years to come.

In order to accomplish this provision must be made for grammar and primary grades now upon the lot in conjunction with the High School.

The proposition adopted by the citizens of West Berkeley at a mass meeting the other evening of building three grammar school houses at an expense of some $75,000, will have to be modified to a certain extent. This amount of money can be used to a better advantage in its distribution.

At the present time the number of school children predominate largely in East Berkeley. While the school rooms in that section of the town are now crowded, other parts of Berkeley have school rooms to spare.

This matter of population is easily explained, but it is not necessary to go into that in this article, only so far as to make provision to meet the facts as they exist.

Now, it is a fact that it is necessary to make provisions for the great number of children who attend the grammar and primary grades upon the Kellogg lot in order to give ample room for the High School girls and boys on the same property. How can this be done? It remains for the Board of Education, which should be thoroughly posted as to this method, to make a report of suggestions for the public to think over and act upon.

At West Berkeley it is quite probable that portions of the San Pablo School house could be utilized for a primary school on Page street. In fact that the West End could be provided with all the school rooms necessary at least for the next five years for perhaps less than $20,000. Taking the idea that the citizens of Berkeley will vote for bonds to the amount of $75,000 and allowing $20,000 for West Berkeley, there would be $55,000 for other portions of the town for grammar and primary purposes. This amount should be ample. There are various ways for this amount to be disbursed and we shall await the action of the Board of Education and note what its recommendations may be before making further remarks upon the subject.

We look for these suggestions, thinking that the Board of Education will notice how the straws blew at the mass meeting and not attempt to force the High School project on the public.

The telegraphic bulletins issued about Governor Budd's health are not very satisfactory. The GAZETTE was right when it said that he had seen his best days, and that only a long rest would be of any service to him and that probably temporary.

THE bloomer girl, Annie London-derry, arrived in Boston yesterday, having been around the world on a bicycle. IN THE U. S. Supreme Court the case of the United States vs. Bell Telephone Co. was docketed yesterday on an appeal from the Court of Appeals. It involves the validity of the Berliner patent issued in 1892. In the lower court it was decided in favor of the United States. The Court of Appeals reversed that decision and now it is in highest court.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC WORK.

NOTICE is hereby given that on the 30th day of August, A. D. 1895, the Board of Trustees of the Town of Berkeley adopted its Resolution of Intent to construct and improve the following public work and improvement to be done and made, viz:

To close up in part Hancock way and the whole of South street.

Whereas, the Board of Trustees of the Town of Berkeley has found and do hereby find the fact to be that the public interest and convenience require the closing up in part of Hancock way and of the whole of South street in the Town of Berkeley, therefore be it

Resolved, by the Board of Trustees of the Town of Berkeley that this Board deems it to be required by the public interest and convenience that Hancock way in said town be closed up in part, and that South street, in said town be closed up in whole from the western line of California street to the eastern line of Third avenue, saving and excepting so much thereof as is included within the exterior lines of the following avenues and street, to wit: Second avenue, Spaulding avenue and Sacramento street.

Resolved further, that it is the intention of said Board of Trustees to enter the closing up in part of Hancock way and in whole of South street, as hereinbefore set forth and as hereinafter more particularly set forth to wit:

That the closing up of said Hancock way in part and in whole of South street, shall result in the closing up of said Hancock way from the western line of California street to the eastern line of Spaulding avenue, and from the western line of Spaulding avenue to the eastern line of Third avenue, saving and excepting so much thereof as is included within the exterior lines of the following avenues and street, to wit: Second avenue, Spaulding avenue and Sacramento street.

That the lands deemed necessary to be taken for the closing up in part of Hancock way and in whole of South street, to wit: The lands embraced within the exterior boundaries of Hancock way and South street, except the exterior points to which said streets, shall result in the closing up of said Hancock way and South street, as aforesaid, are described as follows, to wit:

First—Commencing at the intersection of the eastern line of Third avenue as shown on a map entitled "Plan of the State University Homestead Association adopted March 6th, 1895," filed and of record in the office of the County Recorder of said Alameda county with the northern line of South street, (as shown on said map) and running thence easterly 58.52 feet to the western line of Second street, (as shown on said map) thence southerly along the western line of said Second street (produced southerly) 40 feet to the northern line of the lands belonging to J. B. McMullen and the estate of George R. Bailey, thence westerly along said northern line of said lands 58.52 feet to the eastern line of Third avenue, produced southerly, and thence northerly along the eastern line of Third avenue (produced southerly) 30 feet to the point of commencement.

Second—Commencing at the intersection of the eastern line of Second avenue as shown on said map of the State University Homestead Association, above referred to, and running thence easterly along the northern line of said Second street 57.15 feet to the western line of Sacramento street, or East avenue, as it is shown on the map above referred to, thence southerly along said eastern line of Second street 30 feet to the eastern line of Third avenue, produced southerly, and thence northerly along the eastern line of Third avenue (produced southerly) 30 feet to the point of commencement.

Third—Commencing at the intersection of the eastern line of Sacramento street, to wit: the northern line of South street, as shown on said map of the State University Homestead Association, above referred to, and running thence easterly along the northern line of said South street 57.15 feet to the western line of Spaulding avenue, as shown on said map of the State University Homestead Association, above referred to, thence southerly along the western line of Spaulding avenue 30 feet to the eastern line of Third avenue, produced southerly, and thence northerly along the eastern line of Third avenue (produced southerly) 30 feet to the point of commencement.

Fourth—Commencing at the intersection of the eastern line of Spaulding avenue with the northern line of Hancock way, as shown on said map of the State University Homestead Association, above referred to, and running thence easterly along the northern line of said Hancock way 250.3 feet to the western line of Spaulding avenue, as shown on said map of the State University Homestead Association, above referred to, thence southerly along the western line of Spaulding avenue 30 feet to the eastern line of Third avenue, produced southerly, and thence northerly along the eastern line of Third avenue (produced southerly) 30 feet to the point of commencement.

Fifth—Commencing at the intersection of the eastern line of Spaulding avenue with the northern line of Hancock way, as shown on said map of the State University Homestead Association, above referred to, and running thence easterly along the northern line of said Hancock way 250.3 feet to the western line of Spaulding avenue, as shown on said map of the State University Homestead Association, above referred to, thence southerly along the western line of Spaulding avenue 30 feet to the eastern line of Third avenue, produced southerly, and thence northerly along the eastern line of Third avenue (produced southerly) 30 feet to the point of commencement.

That the exterior boundary of the lands to be affected or benefited by the said closing up in part of Hancock way and in whole of South street, and to be assessed to pay the damages are as follows, to wit:

Commencing at a point on the western line of California street, which would be intersected by the northern line of Hancock way, if produced westerly in the same direction, as the said northern line of Hancock way is shown upon the map of the McCrea Tract, of record in the office of the County Recorder of said county, and running thence northerly and along the western line of California street 300 feet; thence easterly along the northern line of said Hancock way, produced westerly as aforesaid, to the eastern line of Third avenue, as shown on said map of the State University Homestead Association, above referred to, thence southerly along the western line of Spaulding avenue 30 feet to the eastern line of Third avenue, produced southerly, and thence northerly along the eastern line of Third avenue (produced southerly) 30 feet to the point of commencement.

Resolved further, That the BERKELEY GAZETTE, a daily newspaper, printed and published and circulated in the said Town of Berkeley, is hereby designated as the newspaper in which the Superintendent of Streets of said Town shall cause notice of the passage of this resolution to be published, and that said notice be published and posted as required by law.

For further particulars reference is hereby made to said Resolution on file in the office of the Town Clerk.

GUY H. CHICK,
Superintendent of Streets of the Town of Berkeley,
Berkeley, Cal., September 23, 1895.

NOTICE is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received at the office of the undersigned up to 7:45 p. m. of Friday September 27th, 1895, for the purchase of one small, upright tubular boiler and three oil drums, now to be seen at the electric light works of the Town of Berkeley, on Louisa street near Berkeley way.

Bidders must state the highest price that will be given in lawful money of the United States at the time of delivery.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

M. L. HANSCOM,
Clerk of the Town of Berkeley,
September 21st.

THE RETIRED BURGLAR.

Work Easily Performed in the Tumult of a Thunderstorm.

"Speaking of climes," said the retired burglar, "the easiest, softest, smoothest snap I ever struck was in a house in a small town in Rhode Island. There was a thunderstorm coming up as I went along toward this house, and just as I got there it began to sprinkle. By the time I'd got inside it was coming down pretty hard, and I was glad to be under shelter, for I hadn't brought any umbrella with me. I hadn't had any supper either, and when I got into the dining room I thought I'd get something to eat. The sideboard was locked and the key carried up stairs, but a little jimmy opened the door as easy as a knife would open a pie. I set out a little snack on the table and sat down and ate it comfortably, with the rain pouring down outside. If there's anything I like, it's to hear a storm-raging outside when you're settled down all snug and comfortable within.

"But here was something I hadn't counted on. The thunder was roaring and plunging like a dozen earthquakes busting down through the sky, and it kept the house in a tremble all the time. I knew nobody could sleep in that thunder. They'd be sure to be all awake, but here I was, and I hated to lose a night, and after I'd waited a little and the storm didn't show any signs of letting up I thought I'd go ahead and see anyhow. The very first room I looked into up stairs settled the whole business.

"Over in one corner of this room, beyond a bed, I saw a woman standing in front of an open closet door. Two children hopped out of the bed, and the mother pushed them into the closet, and then crowded in herself and pulled the door shut tight. It was all very simple. Husband away, no help; two children sleeping in another room, woke up by thunder, come into their mother's room, all scared; mother puts children in closet and gets in herself, as lots of folks do in thunderstorms. And then I walk over and turn the key in the lock, and there you are. No danger of their coming out till the storm is over anyway, but just as well to be sure about it, and then I just quietly go through the house. It isn't big, and it doesn't take long, and I come back before the storm is over and unlock the closet door again and skip, and that's all there is to it."—New York Sun.

THE CANNY SCOTCHMAN.

His Vices and His Virtues Compared With Those of Other Folks.

One is not quite sure that the religiosity of the Scotch makes them so much more virtuous than people who pay less attention to "the means of grace." But while it cannot readily be proved that they have more of the positive virtues than their neighbors there is at least some reason to believe that they are freer from a few of the ugly vices than their southern cousins, although when the Scotch is bad he is very bad. When he gives way to drink, for instance, he runs to great lengths. But it will be found that there is much less wife beating (there being nothing in Scotland at all resembling the frightful practice of "clogging" known in Lancashire towns), much less cruelty to children, much more kindness and fellow feeling among the Scottish people than among the English, while at the same time the Scotch are not nearly so clannish as the Irish, the Jews or the Chinese.

In his poem on "Nothing" Rochester has classed "Scotch civility" along with "French truth" and "Hibernian learning" as being nonexistent. Even Walter Scott causes Mr. Owen to speak of a typical Scot like Bailie Nicol Jarvie, as "that cross grained caskstick of the Saltmarket," and are we not told that the term "Scot" as well as "Gael," derived from a word for "wind," means "the violent, stormy people?" In spite of all this and much more to the same end the Scot, take him all in all, is not fairly chargeable with being lacking in courtesy. The word "couthy" (the opposite or positive of "uncouth," diminished by the addition of the terminal "y"), signifying a combination of quiet kindness and sweetness of manner, has no English equivalent, and thus would seem to indicate a peculiarly Scotch quality, which, it may be said, tends to wane considerably with the growth of commercialism, giving place to a brusquely peculiarly the outcome of the "rush" of business, and what Carlyle called the "mere cash nexus" between man and man.

Scottish speech abounds in what may be called pet words, which would seem to testify that, whether the Scotch be stormy and sharp tongued or not, they can, upon occasion, be as insinuatingly smooth tongued as the wily Italian himself.—Westminster Review.

Sir John Franklin.

It was in Warwickshire that I made the acquaintance of Sir John Franklin, while I was still quite a child. The stout, good humored gentleman, whose image appears before me as I write his name, is associated in my mind with an event in which he took the keenest interest—a total eclipse of the sun—but the amusement afforded by a rather absurd incident connected with it I am afraid engrossed my childish mind more than all the scientific explanations of the phenomenon which Sir John Franklin was so well qualified to give.

In those primitive days it was held that the best mode of witnessing the obscuration of the sun was to watch it through pieces of smoked glass, with which we were all duly provided when we sallied forth to an open piece of ground where nothing impeded the view. The result was that in the course of a few minutes the noses of every one present were severely blackened—unconsciously to themselves—and the appearance of the whole scientific party was irresistibly comic.

Sir John Franklin appeared then so full of life and energy and high spirits that it was difficult to think of him afterward as the worn out suffering hero of that last fatal voyage, which held the country in suspense as to his fate during a period cruelly long and trying to his wife and to all who had relatives among his companions in the icebound vessels. One of my cousins was of the number, and I well remember the sensation in his home when some of the relics of the disastrous expedition, afterward brought back, were identified as having belonged to him.—Blackwood's Magazine.

The American Pie.

The truth is that the American pie, whether of pumpkin, mince, apples, berries or any other material, is indigenous to the soil and cannot be successfully imitated elsewhere. The foreigners must come here in order to learn how to make pies. And every American is born with an appetite for pie. The foreigner in our midst, and the immigrant, assisted or otherwise, has to acquire it. His Americanism, in fact, may be tested by his taste for pie. He is not a good citizen and fully qualified for all the responsibilities and duties of a voter until he has learned to love pie like a native. And his wife and daughter must learn to make pies. Not the monstrous pies that sometimes pass by that name, the sordid, heavy, half baked abominations that fill the eater with homicidal and suicidal tendencies, but the rich, rare, racy and healthful "confections" which every well trained American housewife knows how to prepare.—Troy Times.

A Curious Custom.

A curious custom still prevails at the coal pits on Hogmanay, in Scotland. The first man to come up the pit after his work is over is received with a shovelful of hot ashes, which, being prepared for, he dodges as best he can, while the last man gets a bucketful of cold water thrown at him.

Quite Likely.

"Ha, ha, ha, ha!" laughed the great detective. "I have them now." For five days he had been on the trail and had neither eaten nor slept. He had done nothing but drink. Under the circumstances his joyous assertion bore the similitude of verity.—Indianapolis Journal.

Too Slow For Us.

There are few things much sadder to a wide awake American than the second day of a game of cricket.—Chicago Record.

Notice!

The Oakland Gas Co. is advertising their gas to be used as a cheap fuel for cooking and heating, and for lighting purposes. But how much better it would be to have a small Imperial Gas Machine, and be your own banker and your neighbors' also. Furnish yourself with a beautiful, clear, steady light, and with fuel for cooking and heating purposes. See J. Schieber, Addison street, Berkeley, and he will tell you of the neighbors here who have them. 108

For Sale.

Very desirable property in San Benito county, only 2 1/2 miles from the town of San Benito. This land is well watered and would make a splendid fruit ranch, or for dairying purposes it is unsurpassed. This land is placed upon the market at the remarkable low price of $6.50 per acre. Easy terms can be arranged by applying at once to G. D. Smith, Dwight way station, Berkeley. 118

Mrs. M. Schulz, corner 10th street and Alston way keeps choice groceries at her store in West Berkeley. She also keeps on hand fresh bread, pies and cakes. She has a nice hall to let. 83

Mrs. M. Fromm who conducts a branch of the Dwight way Home Bakery, would like to have your patronage. Her bread, cakes, pies and confectionery are always fresh. Also all kinds of fresh fruit in season. Corner of Eighth street and University avenue. 119

To the Public.

Having met with greater success at West Berkeley than it was supposed could be done, the undersigned have, according to the request of quite a number of West Berkeleys, made arrangements to stop on University avenue, corner of Seventh street, one week longer, or until Monday evening next. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction.
